

DI4R2018, 9 - 11 October 2018, Lisbon: Call for abstracts is open!

Where:

Lisbon, Portugal

When:

Tuesday, 9 October, 2018 to Thursday, 11 October, 2018

The third edition of the annual Digital Infrastructures for Research \(DI4R\) conference will be held this year at the University of Lisbon campus in Lisbon, Portugal, from 9 to 11 October.

Building on the success of DI4R2016 (Krakow) and DI4R2017 (Brussels), DI4R2018 promises to be the biggest and best yet. Jointly organised by EOSC-hub, GÉANT, OpenAIRE and PRACE, the event will bring a packed programme of sessions, posters and networking opportunities to Europe's researchers, developers and service providers - leading to brainstorming and discussions on how best to serve the user base.

This year's co-chairs will be Volker Guelzow (from DESY) and Sinéad Ryan from (Trinity College).

Call for abstracts is open:
